Affiliation

HQCC, previously known as the Healthcare Quality Certification Board (HQCB), is the certifying arm of the not-for-profit National Association for Healthcare Quality (NAHQ), which was formed in 1976 to advance the profession of healthcare quality through the development of a certification program. HQCC establishes policies, procedures, and standards for certification and recertification in the field of healthcare quality. The granting of CPHQ status by HQCC recognizes professional and academic achievement through the individual's participation in this voluntary certification program.

Accreditation

The CPHQ certification program is fully accredited by the National Commission for Certifying Agencies (NCCA), the accrediting arm of the Institute for Credentialing Excellence (ICE), Washington, DC.

Statement of Nondiscrimination

The certification examination is offered to all eligible candidates, regardless of age, gender, race, religion, national origin, marital status, or disability. Neither NAHQ nor AMP, a PSI business, the examination service provider, discriminates on the basis of age, gender, race, religion, national origin, marital status, gender identity, sexual orientation, or disability.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Introduction to the CPHQ Program

The purpose of certification in the healthcare quality field is to promote excellence and professionalism. The program certifies individuals who demonstrate their knowledge and expertise in this field by passing a written examination. The CPHQ designation provides the healthcare employer and the public with the assurance that certified individuals possess the necessary skills, knowledge, and experience in healthcare quality to perform competently.

The high standards of the certification program are ensured by the close working relationships among NAHQ, HQCC, healthcare quality professionals, and testing experts. HQCC adheres to NCCA standards in the development and implementation of its certification program.

The certification program is not designed to determine who is qualified or who shall engage in healthcare quality activities. The goal is to promote excellence and professionalism by documenting individual performance as measured against a predetermined level of knowledge about quality. All CPHQ's are expected to comply with NAHQ's code of ethics in spirit and action. A cooperative effort by HQCC, PSI, and practicing healthcare quality professionals has resulted in the definition of tasks significant to the practice of quality. These competencies are included in the certification examination. The examination materials are developed by practicing healthcare quality professionals and HQCC.

Examination Services

NAHQ contracts with PSI to provide examination services internationally or outside of the United States and its territories. PSI carefully adheres to industry standards for development of practice-related, criterion-referenced examinations to assess competency and is responsible for administering the certification exam and scoring and reporting examination results.

Questions related to the examination should be referred to:

Objectives of Certification

The objectives of the certification program for quality professionals are to

1. Promote professional standards and improve the practice of quality
2. Give special recognition to those professionals who demonstrate an acquired body of knowledge and expertise in the field through successful completion of the examination process
3. Identify acceptable knowledge of the principles and practice of healthcare quality for employers, the public, and members of allied professions
4. Foster continuing competence and maintain the professional standard in healthcare quality through the recertification program.

Definition of the Quality Professional

The practice of quality occurs in all healthcare settings, is performed by professionals with diverse clinical and nonclinical educational and experience backgrounds, and involves the knowledge, skills, and abilities needed to perform the tasks significant to practice in the CPHQ examination content outline. (Refer to the Examination Content Outline on page 23)

A Certified Professional in Healthcare Quality (CPHQ) is an individual who has passed the accreditation examination, demonstrating competent knowledge, skill, and understanding of program development and management, quality improvement concepts, coordination of survey processes, communication and education techniques, and departmental management.

HQCC's goal is to produce examinations that test generic concepts that can be applied to any healthcare setting. Candidates who pass the CPHQ examination must also understand how all of these important elements of quality and case/care/disease/utilization/risk management, as well as data and general management skills, integrate to produce an effective and efficient system to monitor and improve care.

CPHQ Statistics

Certification

To become certified, each quality professional must pass the CPHQ examination. The examination is available in computer-based format at assessment centers in the United States and multiple international locations. Certified professionals are entitled to use the designation “CPHQ” after their names. Certification in quality is effective on the date you pass the examination. The credential is valid from the time you receive your certificate through a 2-year period, which begins on January 1 of the year following the date you pass the examination. Candidates who do not achieve a passing score or whose cycle of eligibility has expired must submit a new application.

International certificants will receive an electronic certificate approximately 3–4 weeks after scores are released. A printed certificate and a CPHQ pin can be purchased at www.cphq.org.

Recertification

Following successful completion of the certification examination, the CPHQ is required to maintain certification by fulfilling continuing education (CE) requirements, which are reviewed and established annually by HQCC. The current requirements include obtaining and maintaining documentation of 30 CE hours over the 2-year recertification cycle—beginning January 1 of the year following the date you passed the exam—and payment of a recertification fee. All CE must relate to areas covered in the most current examination content outline. Current employment in the quality field is not required to maintain active CPHQ status. The process for obtaining recertification is described on the website at www.cphq.org.

Eligibility Requirements

All candidates have complete access to the examination process. Those who aspire to excel and demonstrate their competency in the field of healthcare quality have a chance to do so and achieve certification.

After years of extensive experience in testing research and development, and after observing the extraordinarily diverse backgrounds of exceptional candidates who have been successful on the examination and as CPHQs, the commission is confident that the carefully crafted CPHQ examination will differentiate between candidates who are able to demonstrate competence and those who are not. It is with this confidence that HQCC celebrates the elimination of barriers such as minimum education and experience requirements that are not objectively linked to success on the examination and effectiveness as a healthcare quality professional.

Candidates must take time to assess and judge their own readiness to apply to take the CPHQ examination, particularly if they have not worked in the field for at least 2 years. A careful review of all available information about the tasks covered in the CPHQ examination content outline, sample examination questions, reference list, and any other available data is essential before making the decision to apply for the examination.

The examination committee develops and writes the examination to test the knowledge, skills, and abilities of effective quality professionals who have been performing a majority of the tasks on the examination outline for at least 2 years. The examination does not test at the entry level and is not appropriate for entry-level candidates. If the candidate is new to healthcare quality, has worked in the field less than 2 years, or his or her experience as a quality manager was not specifically related to healthcare, HQCC cautions that the candidate may not be ready to attempt the examination. Refer to the content outline later in this handbook for detailed content information and other tools to assess readiness.

About the Examination

The CPHQ examination is the only fully accredited, standardized measurement of the knowledge, skills, and abilities expected of competent healthcare quality professionals. The examination is available in a computerized format on a daily basis at PSI Test Centers.

The certification examination is an objective, multiple-choice examination consisting of 140 questions. Of these questions, 125 are used in computing the score, as discussed later in this handbook. The following percentage guidelines are used in selecting the three types of questions that appear on each examination: 26% recall, 57% application, and 17% analysis. Recall questions test the candidate's knowledge of specific facts and concepts. Application questions require the candidate to interpret or apply information to a situation. Analysis questions test the candidate's ability to evaluate, problem solve, or integrate a variety of information and judgment into a meaningful whole.

Pretest Questions on the Examination

In addition to the 125 scored questions, CPHQ examinations also include an additional 15 pretest questions. You will be asked to answer these questions; however, they will not be included in the scored examination result. Pretest questions will be disbursed within the examination, and you will not be able to determine which of the questions are being pretested and which will be included in your score. This is necessary to ensure that candidates answer pretest questions in the same manner as they do scored questions. This allows the question to be validated as accurate and appropriate before it is included as a measure of candidate competency.

The examination content is based upon a practice analysis conducted every 3 years to ensure the content is current, practice-related, and representative of the responsibilities of healthcare quality professionals. Participants in the practice analysis survey must have completed a minimum of 1 year working in healthcare quality, case/care/disease/utilization/ risk management for their responses to be included in the research.

Special Arrangements for Candidates with Disabilities

PSI will provide reasonable accommodations for candidates with disabilities. Candidates requesting special accommodations must notify PSI at the time of application and scheduling.

1. Candidates must advise PSI at the time of scheduling that wheelchair access is necessary.
2. Candidates with visual, sensory, physical, or learning disabilities that would prevent them from taking the examination under standard conditions may request special accommodations and arrangements and will be reviewed by PSI.

Practice Examination

Prior to attempting the timed examination, you will be given the opportunity to practice taking an examination on the computer. The time used for this practice examination is NOT counted as part of the examination time or score. When you are comfortable with the computer testing process, you may quit the practice session and begin the timed examination.

Timed Examination

Following the practice examination, the actual examination will begin. Before beginning, instructions for taking the examination are provided on-screen.

The computer monitors the time spent on the examination. You will have 3 hours to complete the examination. The examination will terminate if testing exceeds the time allowed. Click on the “Time” box in the lower right portion of the screen to monitor testing time. A digital clock indicates the time remaining to complete the examination. The time feature may be turned off during the examination.

Only one examination question is presented at a time. The question number appears in the lower right portion of the screen. Choices of answers to the examination questions are identified as A, B, C, or D. You must indicate your choice by either typing in the letter in the response box in the lower left portion of the computer screen or clicking on the option using the mouse. To change an answer, enter a different option by typing A, B, C, or D or by clicking on the option using the mouse. You may change your answer as many times as you wish during the examination, within the time limit.

To move to the next question, click on the forward arrow (>) in the lower right portion of the screen. This action will move you forward through the examination question by question. To review any question, click the backward arrow (<) or use the left arrow key to move backward through the examination.

An examination question may be left unanswered for return later in the examination session. Questions may also be bookmarked for later review by using the mouse and clicking in the blank square to the right of the “Time” box. Click on the double arrow (>>) to advance to the next unanswered or bookmarked question on the examination. To identify all unanswered and bookmarked questions, repeatedly click on the double arrow (>>). When the examination is completed, the number of examination questions answered is reported. If not all questions have been answered and there is time remaining, return to the examination and answer those questions. Be sure to provide an answer for each examination question before ending the examination. There is no penalty for guessing.

Candidate Comments

During the examination, comments may be provided for any question by clicking on the button displaying an exclamation point (!) to the left of the “Time” box. This opens a dialogue box where comments may be entered. Comments will be reviewed, but individual responses will not be provided.

Following the Examination

After you finish the examination, you are asked to complete a short evaluation of your testing experience. Then, you are instructed to report to the examination proctor to complete your examination. Scores are not provided onsite. They will be mailed following the close of the examination window and made accessible at www.goAMP.com via a secure user account.

Information regarding on-line access will be sent via e-mail at the time scores are released. This is an unofficial score report. You may not use the CPHQ credential until you receive your official documentation. The score report will indicate if you have passed or if you have not achieved the score required to pass the examination, followed by a raw score indicating the number of questions you answered correctly. Additional detail is provided in the form of raw scores by each of the four major content categories. This information is provided as feedback to help you understand your performance within the major content categories.

Your pass or fail status is determined by your overall raw score for the entire examination. Even though the examination consists of 140 questions, your score is based on 125 scored questions. Fifteen of the questions on the examination are pretest questions and are not included in the final score.

The content category scores on the score report are not used to determine pass-fail decision outcomes. They are only provided to offer a general indication regarding candidate your performance in each content category. The examination is designed to provide a consistent and precise determination of your overall performance and is not designed to provide complete information regarding your performance in each content category. You should remember that areas with a larger number of items (questions) will affect the overall score more than areas with a fewer number of items. The precision and consistency of scores diminishes with fewer items, and therefore, sub-scores should be interpreted with caution, especially those that correspond to content categories with very few items.

To ensure confidentiality, no candidate examination scores will be reported by telephone, electronic mail, or facsimile. Neither HQCC nor the testing agency will release individual score reports to employers, schools, or other individuals or organizations without your written authorization.

For information regarding failing the examination, see page 21.

Exam fees may be paid by credit card, personal check, or money order for the total amount, payable to HQCC/NAHQ. Please write the name of the candidate taking the exam on the face of your check. An additional $25 charge will be added for any returned checks or rejected credit cards to cover additional handling fees and service charges imposed by the bank or Credit Card Company. Your canceled check or credit card receipt serves to document payment for the examination.

Scores Canceled by HQCC or PSI

HQCC and PSI are responsible for the integrity of the scores they report. On occasion, occurrences such as computer malfunction or misconduct by a candidate may cause a score to be suspect. HQCC and PSI are committed to rectifying such discrepancies as expeditiously as possible. Examination results may be voided if, upon investigation, violation of regulations is discovered.

Disciplinary Policy

HQCC grants the CPHQ certification to qualified healthcare quality professionals as a means of promoting excellence and professionalism in the healthcare quality field. The Certification program is a voluntary process. The Commission, in accordance with its policies and procedures, determines whether individuals are qualified for Certification, and issues said Certification when applicable. The Commission does not determine, monitor, or otherwise become involved in the manner employers and other third parties apply the Certification.

Applications for initial Certification or renewal of the same are determined by HQCC at its sole discretion. Without limiting the foregoing, applications may be refused, candidates may be barred from future examinations, or candidates or individuals already Certified may be sanctioned, including revocation of the Certification, for, but not limited to, the following conduct ("Improper Conduct"):

- Including and/or otherwise providing false, misleading, or incomplete information on any application for Certification or renewal, or other CPHQ related document.
- Failing to complete or provide proof of completion of the any Certification or renewal requirements.

- The Commissions' determination that Certification or renewal was improperly granted.
- Cheating or assisting others to cheat on any CPHQ exam.
- Purchasing, sharing, and/or reviewing preparatory materials that have, or claim to have, actual questions, answers, or other materials from prior CPHQ exams.
- Removing or attempting to remove examination materials or information from a test site.
- Unauthorized possession or distribution of any official testing or examination materials via social media sites, text messaging, or other medium, and/or reproduced in any format.
- Causing, creating, or participating in an examination irregularity.
- Assisting others to wrongfully obtain Certification or renew their Certification.
- Failure to comply with the code of ethics in which Certification is held.
- Any conduct unbecoming of the healthcare quality profession and/or failure to comply with HQCC's policies and procedures regarding Certification.

The definitions of any and all terms (e.g., misleading, incomplete, cheating, irregularity, unbecoming, spirit, and action, etc.) included in the above example violations shall be determined by the Commission in its sole discretion, and are not subject to other interpretation. All CPHQs must read and agree to abide by HQCC's Disciplinary Policies and Procedures prior to sitting to the exam.

Pass or Fail Score Determination

Neither HQCC nor PSI is able to release or discuss individual questions with candidates following the examination. To do so would require elimination of that question from the item bank of pretested questions and deplete the number of pretested questions required to develop future versions of the examination.

The methodology used to set the minimum passing score is the Angoff method, applied during the performance of a Passing Point Study by a panel of experts in the field.

The experts evaluated each question on the examination to determine how many correct answers are necessary to demonstrate the knowledge and skills required to pass this examination portion. Your ability to pass the examination depends on the knowledge and skill you display, not on the performance of other candidates.

Passing scores may vary slightly for each version of the examination. To ensure fairness to all candidates, a process of statistical equating is used. This involves selecting an appropriate mix of individual questions for each version of the examination that meet the content distribution requirements of the examination content blueprint. Because each question has been pretested, a difficulty level can be assigned. The process then considers the difficulty level of each question selected for each version of the examination, attempting to match the difficulty level of each version as closely as possible. To ensure fairness, slight variations in difficulty level are addressed by adjusting the passing score up or down, depending on the overall difficulty level statistics for the group of scored questions that appear on a particular version of the examination.

If You Pass the Examination

HQCC will e-mail a congratulatory letter and information packet to each new CPHQ that includes a certificate. Your name, as stated on the application, will appear on the certificate. HQCC will attempt to e-mail the materials to the candidate's primary e-mail address on file.

HQCC reserves the right to recognize publicly any candidate who has successfully completed a CPHQ certification examination, thereby earning the certification credential.

A physical certificate can be requested by completing the online form at www.cphq.org and paying the required $25 fee. CPHQ pins are available for $25 plus shipping fees and can be ordered at www.cphq.org. Guaranteed delivery with package tracking may be selected for an additional $100.

Continuing Education Credit

Some organizations accept successful completion of a certification examination for continuing education (CE) credit. Check with your licensure or registration board or association for acceptance and CE credits allowed.

Refer to the “Recertification” section of this handbook (page 8) for details about CE requirements to maintain CPHQ status after passing the examination.

Verification of CPHQ Status

Information on the current certification status of an individual can be obtained at www.cphq.org. Employers who request verification of CPHQ status must provide the individual’s name and CPHQ Certification number to ensure correct identification in the CPHQ database. Annually, a listing of successful candidates will be published on the CPHQ website at www.cphq.org.

If You Fail the Examination

If you do not pass the certification examination, you may reapply for the examination. You cannot test in consecutive windows. For example, if you fail the examination in the first window, you may apply for the third window of the year.

Repeat candidates must submit a new application and full examination fee. Names of candidates who do not pass the examination are confidential and are not revealed under any circumstances except by legal compulsory process.

Appeals

Because the performance of each question on the examination that is included in the final score has been pretested, there are no appeal procedures to challenge individual examination questions, answers, or a failing score.

Actions by the commission affecting eligibility of a candidate to take the examination may be appealed. Additionally, appeals may be considered for alleged inappropriate examination administration procedures or environmental testing conditions severe enough to cause a major disruption of the examination process and which could have been avoided.

Appeals may be submitted by e-mail to info@cphq.org or in writing by mail to the attention of the HQCC chair at the address below:

HQCC Headquarters
8600 West Bryn Mawr Ave.
Suite 710 N.
Chicago, IL 60631, USA

Equivalency eligibility appeals must be received within 30 days of the initial HQCC action. Appeals for alleged inappropriate administration procedures or severe adverse environmental testing conditions must be received within 60 days of the release of examination results.

The HQCC Chair will respond within 30 days of receipt of the appeal. If this decision is adverse, the candidate may file a second-level appeal within 30 days. A three-member panel of HQCC will review the chair's decision and respond with a final decision within 45 days of receipt.

Verification of Scores

In computer-based testing, the computer accepts responses from a keyboard or mouse in digitized form. Computer-based testing eliminates problems that may have previously arisen with scanning paper-and-pencil answer sheets, because all responses are recorded by candidates during their examinations. However, verification of examination scores from electronic responses can be requested. For more information about the process and fee for this service, contact PSI at 888.519.9901 within 90 days after the examination.

Preparation for the CPHQ Certification Examination

HQCC neither sponsors, endorses, nor financially benefits from any review courses or published preparation materials for the CPHQ certification examination. We are aware of organizations that claim to have real exam items; please be aware that it is illegal for them to possess real exam items since the items are the copyrighted property of NAHQ. If an organization or individual does have real exam items these are stolen property of NAHQ and the organization or individual can face severe civil and criminal penalties.

If a candidate is found to be utilizing materials from a company or individual claiming to have real exam items HQCC retains the right to prevent the candidate from testing, revoke their credential and bar from future testing. See pg. 20 for the full disciplinary policy.

CPHQ EXAMINATION CONTENT OUTLINE

The content validity of the CPHQ examination is based on a practice analysis which surveyed healthcare quality professionals on the tasks they perform. Each question on the examination is linked directly to one of the tasks listed below. In other words, each question is designed to test whether the candidate possesses the knowledge necessary to perform the task or has the ability to apply it to a job situation.

Each of the tasks below was rated as significant to practice by healthcare quality professionals who responded to the survey. One rule used by the exam committee requires that a task be significant to practice in the major types and sizes of healthcare facilities, including those employed in managed care. Thus the examination content is valid for this segment of healthcare quality professionals and those employed in hospital, clinic, home care, behavioral and mental health, or other care settings.

The following is a list of tasks that forms the content outline of the CPHQ examination and to which the examination questions are linked.
