

2018 Claire Glover Distinguished Member Award for Contributions to the Healthcare Quality Profession

Description

Claire Glover was an avid supporter and spokesperson for the National Association for Healthcare Quality (NAHQ). She supported the growth of NAHQ, the promotion of healthcare quality and was instrumental in mentoring and encouraging others to become NAHQ leaders. When the NAHQ board approved an award to recognize an outstanding member, the award was named after Claire, who epitomized the characteristics of enthusiasm, passion, dedication and commitment to the organization.

The National Association for Healthcare Quality (NAHQ) annually awards the Claire Glover Award to recognize a dynamic and passionate NAHQ member who has demonstrated enthusiasm and leadership with local and national healthcare associations and has made contributions to healthcare quality through healthcare consultation, publications and presentations.

Eligibility Criteria

Eligible candidates will be a NAHQ member who has demonstrated the characteristics of commitment, dedication, passion, and enthusiasm for the healthcare quality profession. Members of the Board, Recognition of the Profession Commission, Awards Team, Honorary members and NAHQ staff are ineligible for the award during their term of service. Candidates may be nominated by a NAHQ member.
